The Rob Warren Leadership Foundation (Castro Valley High School) was setup in honor of Robert L. Warren. Rob's commitment to developing leadership skills into our youths stemmed from an early age. He served as a congressional page as a youngster, became a district attorney for Alameda county, and served on many boards, including Rowell Ranch Rodeo and Sutter Health. The foundation strives to instill youths with the framework and skills to get on not only with their careers but for the rest of their lives.
